1. Subs. for the words “British India” by India (Adaptation of Existing Indian Laws) Order of 1947, as further amended by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.

2. Subs. for the expression “Central Government” (which was subs. for “State Government” by A.O. 1968) by A.O. 1973. The word “State” was subs. for the word “Provincial” by Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.

3. Subs. for the words “any person” by East Punjab Act XII of 1949, sec. 3.

29. Prohibition of sale to persons under the age of twenty-five years.—
No licensed vendor and no person in the employ of such vendor or acting on his behalf shall sell or deliver any liquor or intoxicating drug to any person apparently under the age of twenty-five years whether for consumption by such person or by another person and whether for consumption on or off the premises of such vendor.

30. Prohibition of employment of man under the age of 25 years and of women.—No person who is licensed to sell any liquor or intoxicating drug for consumption on his premises shall during the hours in which such premises are kept open for business, employ or permit to be employed, either with or without remuneration, any man under the age of 25 years or any woman in any part of such premises in which such liquor or intoxicating drug is consumed by the public.

CHAPTER V
DUTIES AND FEES

31. Duty on excisable articles.—An excise duty or a countervailing duty, as the case may be, at such rate or rates as the State Government shall direct, may be imposed, either generally or for any specified local area, on any excisable article:

(a) imported, exported or transported in accordance with the provisions of section 16; or
(b) manufactured or cultivated under any license granted under section 20; or
(c) manufactured in any distillery established, or any distillery or brewery licensed under section 21;
Provided as follows:
(i) duty shall not be so imposed on any article which has been imported into India and was liable on importation to duty under the Indian Tariff Act, 1894, (VIII of 1894) or the Sea Customs Act, 1878 (VIII of 1878); or (ii) the proviso (ii) was omitted by Government of India (Adaptation of Indian Laws) Order, 1937.

2. Subs. for the old section by East Punjab Act XII of 1949, sec. 5.
3. Subs. for the words “A duty” by Government of India (Adaptation of Indian Laws) Order, 1937.
4. Subs. for “Central Government” (which was subs. for “State Government” by A.O.
1968) by A.O. 1973. The word “State” was subs. for the word “Provincial” by Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.
5. The words “the Provinces of” omitted by Adaptation of Laws (Third Amendment) Order, 1951. The words “the Provinces of India” had been subs. for the words “British India” by Indian Independence (Adaptation of Bengal and Punjab Act) Order, 1948.
7. Repealed and replaced by Act No. 52 of 1962.
8. The Proviso (ii) was omitted by Government of India (Adaptation of Indian Laws) Order, 1937.
Explanation.—Duty may be imposed under this section at different rates according to the places to which any excisable article is to be removed for consumption or according to the varying strengths and quality of such article.

32. Manner in which duty may be levied.—Subject to such rules regulating the time, place and manner as the Financial Commissioner may prescribe, such duty shall be levied rateably on the quantity of excisable article imported, transported, collected or manufactured in, or issued from, a distillery, brewery or warehouse:

Provided that duty may be levied —

(a) on intoxicating drugs by an acreage rate levied on the cultivation of the hemp [* * * * ] plant, or by a rate charged on the quantity collected;

(b) on spirit or beer manufactured in any distillery established, or any distillery or brewery licensed, under this Act, in accordance with such scale of equivalents calculated on the quantity of materials used, or by the degree of attenuation of the wash or wort, as the case may be, as the [*State Government] may prescribe;

(c) on tari, by a tax on each tree from which the tari is drawn:

Provided further that, where payment is made upon issue of an excisable article for sale from a warehouse established or licensed under section 22(a) it shall be made —

(a) if the [*State Government] by notification so directs, at the rate of duty which was in force at the date of import of that article, or

(b) in the absence of such direction by the [*State Government], at the rate of duty which is in force on that article on the date when it is issued from the warehouse.

33. Payment for grant of leases.—Instead of or in addition to any duty leviable under this Chapter the [*State Government] may accept payment of a sum in consideration of the lease of any right under section 27.

33-A. Saving for duties being levied at commencement of the Constitution.—(1) Until provision to the contrary is made by [*Parliament], [the State Government] may continue to levy any duty [ * * * ] which it was lawfully levying immediately before the commencement of the [*Constitution], under this Chapter as then in force.

1. The words "or coca" were omitted by Schedule II of India Act, II of 1930.
2. Subs. for "Central Government" (which was subs. for "State Government" by A.O. 1968) by A.O. 1973. The word "State" was subs. for the word "Provincial" by Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.
3. Sec. 33-A was inserted by Government of India (Adaptation of Indian Laws) Order, 1937.
4. Subs. for the words "the Central Legislature" by Adaptation of Laws (Third Amendment) Order 1951.
5. The words "to which this section applies" omitted by Adaptation of Laws (Third Amendment) Order, 1951.
(2) The duties to which this section applies are—

(a) any duty on intoxicants which are not excisable articles within the meaning of this Act; and

(b) any duty on an excisable article produced outside India and imported into the territories specified in sub-section (1) of section 5 of the Punjab Reorganisation Act, 1966, whether across a customs frontier as defined by the Central Government or not.

(3) Nothing in this section shall authorise the levy by the State Government of any duty which, as between goods manufactured or produced in the territories specified in sub-section (1) of section 5 of the Punjab Reorganisation Act, 1966, and similar goods not so manufactured or produced, discriminates in favour of the former, or which in the case of goods manufactured or produced outside the territories specified in sub-section (1) of section 5 of the Punjab Reorganisation Act, 1966, discriminates between goods manufactured or produced in one locality and similar goods manufactured or produced in another locality.

CHAPTER VI

LICENSES, PERMITS AND PASSES

34. Fees for terms, conditions and form of, and duration of, licenses, permits and passes.—(1) Every licence, permit or pass granted under this Act shall be granted—

(a) on payment of such fees, if any,

(b) subject to such restrictions and on such conditions,

(c) in such form and containing such particulars,

(d) for such period, as the Financial Commissioner may direct.

(2) Security.—Any authority granting a license under this Act may require the licensee to give such security for the observance of the terms of his licence, or to make such deposit in lieu of security, as such authority may think fit.

35. Grant of licenses for sale.—(1) Subject to the rules made by the Financial Commissioner under the powers conferred by this Act, the Collector may grant licenses for the sale of any intoxicant within his district.

1. Subs. by A.O. 1968, for the word “Punjab” which was subs. for “East Punjab” by Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.

2. Subs. for “Central Government” which was subs. for “State Government” by A.O. 1968) by A. O. 1973. The word “State” was subs. for the word “Provincial” by Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.

3. Subs. for the word “State” which was subs. for the word “Province” by Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.

(2) Ascertainment of public opinion.—Before any licence is granted in any year for the retail sale of liquor for consumption on any premises which have not been so licensed in the preceding year, the Collector shall take such measures, in accordance with rules to be made by the [State Government] in this behalf, as may best enable him to ascertain local public opinion in regard to the licensing of such premises.

(3) A license for sale in more than one district of [the territories specified in sub-section (1) of section 5 of the Punjab Reorganisation Act, 1966] shall be granted by the Financial Commissioner only.

36. Power to cancel or suspend licenses etc.—Subject to such restrictions as the [State Government] may prescribe, the authority granting any license, permit or pass under this Act may cancel or suspend it:

(a) if it is transferred or sublet by the holder thereof without the permission of the said authority; or

(b) if any duty or fee payable by the holder thereof be not duly paid; or

(c) in the event of any breach by the holder of such license, permit or pass or by his servants, or by any one acting on his behalf with his express or implied permission, of any of the terms or conditions of such licence, permit or pass; or

(d) if the holder thereof is convicted of any offence punishable under this Act or any other law for the time being in force relating to revenue, or of any cognizable and non-bailable offence or of any offence punishable under the Dangerous Drugs Act, 1930 or, under the Merchandise Marks Act, 1889, or of any offence punishable under sections 482 to 489 (both inclusive) of the Indian Penal Code; or

(e) if the holder thereof is punished for any offence referred to in clause (8) of section 167 of the Sea Customs Act, 1878; or

(f) where a license, permit or pass has been granted on the application of the grantee of a lease under this Act, on the requisition in writing of such grantee; or

(g) at will, if the conditions of the license or permit provide for such cancellation or suspension.

1. Subs. for “Central Government” (which was subs. for “State Government” by A.O. 1968) by A.O. 1973. The word “State” was subs. for the word “Provincial” by Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.

2. Subs. for the word “Punjab” which was subs. for “East Punjab” by Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.

3. Ins. by Schedule II of Central Act, II of 1930.

4. See now the Trade and Merchandise Marks Act, 43 of 1958.

37. Power to cancel any other license.—When a license, permit or pass held by any person is cancelled under clause (a), (b), (c), (d) or (e) of section 36 the authority aforesaid may cancel any other license, permit or pass granted to such person [by, or by the authority of the [State Government], within the same district under this Act or under any other law for the time being in force relating to excise revenue or under the Opium Act, 1878 and the Financial Commissioner may cancel any such license, permit or pass granted to such person in any district to which this Act applies.

38. Power to recover fee.—In the case of cancellation or suspension of a license under clause (a), (b), (c), (d) or (e) of section 36, the fee payable for the balance of the period for which any licence would have been current but for such cancellation or suspension, may be recovered from the ex-licensee as excise revenue.

39. Power of Collector to take grants under management or to resell.—If any holder of a license granted under this Act, or any person to whom a lease has been granted under section 27, makes default in complying with any condition imposed upon him by such license or lease, the Collector may take the grant under management at the risk of the person who has so defaulted or may resell it and recover in the manner laid down in section 60 of this Act any deficiency in price and all expenses of such re-sale.

40. No compensation or refund claimable for cancellation or suspension of license etc. under this section.—When a license, permit or pass is cancelled or suspended under clause (a), (b), (c), (d), or (e) of section 36 or under section 37, the holder shall not be entitled to any compensation for its cancellation or suspension, nor to the refund of any fee paid or deposit made in respect thereof.

41. Powers to withdraw licenses.—(1) Whenever the authority which granted a license, permit or pass under this Act considers that such licence, permit or pass should be withdrawn for any cause other than those specified in section 36, it may, on remitting a sum equal to the amount of the fees payable in respect thereof for fifteen days, withdraw the license either —

(a) on the expiration of fifteen days' notice in writing of its intention to do so, or

(b) forthwith without notice.

1. Ins. by Government of India (Adaptation of Indian Laws) Order, 1937.

2. Subs. for "Central Government" (which was subs. for "State Government" by A.O. 1968) by A.O. 1973. The word "State" was subs. for the word "Provincial" by Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.
(2) Compensation in the case of withdrawal.—If any license, permit or pass be withdrawn under clause (b) of sub-section (1), in addition to the sum remitted as aforesaid, there shall be paid to the licensee such further sum (if any) by way of compensation as the Financial Commissioner may direct.

(3) Refund of fee or deposit.—When a license, permit or pass is withdrawn under this section, any fee paid in advance or deposit made by the licensee in respect thereof shall be refunded to him, after deducting the amount (if any) due to the [State Government].

42. (1) Technical irregularities in license etc.—No license, permit or pass granted under this Act shall be deemed to be invalid by reason merely of any technical defect, irregularity or omission in the license or in any proceedings taken prior to the grant thereof.

(2) The decision of the Financial Commissioner as to what is a technical defect, irregularity or omission shall be final.

43. No claim in consequence of refusal to renew a license etc.—No person to whom a license, permit or pass may have been granted shall be entitled to claim any renewal thereof, and no claim shall lie for damages or otherwise in consequence of any refusal to renew a license, permit or pass on the expiry of the period for which it remains in force.

44. Surrender of license.—(1) No holder of a license granted under this Act to sell an [intoxicant] shall surrender his license except on the expiration of one month's notice in writing given by him to the Collector of his intention to surrender the same and on payment of the fee payable for the license for the whole period for which it would have been current but for the surrender:

Providea that, if the Collector is satisfied that there is sufficient reason for surrendering the license, he may remit to the holder thereof the sum so payable on surrender or any portion thereof.

(2) Sub-section (1) shall not apply in the case of any licence granted under section 27(2).

Explanation.—The words "holder of a license" as used in this section include a person whose tender or bid for a license has been accepted, although he may not actually have received the license.

1. Subs. for the expression "Central Government" (which was subs. for "State Government" by A.O. 1968) by A.O. 1973. The word "State" was subs. for the word "Provincial" by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.

2. Subs. for the words "excisable article" by Government of India (Adaptation of Indian Laws) Order, 1937.
CHAPTER VII

POWERS AND DUTIES OF OFFICERS, ETC.

45. Power to enter and inspect places of manufacture and sale.—Any excise officer not below such rank as the [State Government] may prescribe may—

(a) enter and inspect at any time by day or night, any place in which any licensed manufacturer carries on the manufacture of or stores any intoxicant;

(b) enter and inspect, at any time within the hours during which sale is permitted and at any other time during which the same may be open, any place in which any intoxicant is kept for sale by any person holding a license under this Act;

(c) examine accounts and registers, test, measure or weigh any materials, stills, utensils, implements, apparatus or intoxicant found in that place;

(d) seize any accounts, registers, measures, weights or testing instruments which he has reason to believe to be false.

46. Powers of excise officers to investigate offences punishable under this Act.—(1) The [State Government] may by notification invest any excise officer, not below the rank of sub-inspector, with power to investigate any offence punishable under this Act, committed within the limits of the area in which the officer exercises jurisdiction.

(2) Every officer so empowered may within those limits exercise the same powers in respect of such investigation as an officer in charge of a police station may exercise in a cognizable case under the provisions of Chapter XIV of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898.

47. Powers of arrest, seizure and detention.—Any officer of the excise, police, salt or land revenue department, not below such rank and subject to such restrictions as the [State Government] may prescribe, and any other person duly empowered by notification by the [State Government] in this behalf, may arrest without warrant any person found committing an offence punishable under section 61 or section 63, and may seize and detain any intoxicant or other article which he has reason to believe to be liable... to confiscation under this Act or other law for the time being in force relating to excise revenue; and may detain and search any person upon whom, and any vessel, raft, vehicle, animal, package, receptacle or covering in or upon which he may have reasonable cause to suspect any such article to be.

48. Power of magistrate to issue warrant for search or arrest.—A magistrate having reason to believe that an offence under-section 61 or 63 has been, is being or is likely to be committed, may—

(a) issue a warrant for the search of any place in which he has reason to believe that any [intoxicant], still, utensil, implement, apparatus or materials, in respect of which such offence has been, is being or is likely to be committed, are kept or concealed; and

(b) issue a warrant for the arrest of any person whom he has reason to believe to have been, to be, or to be likely to be engaged in the commission of any such offence.

49. Power of excise officer to search without warrant.—(1) Whenever any excise officer not below such rank as the [State Government] may by notification prescribe, has reason to believe that an offence punishable under section 61, section 62, section 63, or section 64, has been, is being, or is likely to be committed in any place, and that a search-warrant cannot be obtained without affording the offender an opportunity of escape or of concealing evidence of the offence, he may, at any time, by day or night, enter and search such place.

(2) Further powers of seizure, detention, search and arrest.—Every excise officer as aforesaid may seize anything found in such place which he has reason to believe to be liable to confiscation under this Act, and may detain and search and, if he thinks proper, arrest any person found in such place whom he has reason to believe to be guilty of such offence as aforesaid.

49-A. Power of Excise Officers to obtain information.—(1) Any Excise Officer, not below such rank as the [State Government] may by notification prescribe, may by order require any person to furnish to any specified authority or person any such information in his possession concerning any unlawful import, transport, manufacture, or possession of any intoxicant or any materials, still, utensil, implement, or apparatus whatsoever, for the purpose of manufacturing any intoxicant, or any unlawful cultivation of any plants from which an intoxicating drug can be produced as may be specified in the order.

1. Ins. by East Punjab Act IX of 1948.
2. Subs. for the expression “Central Government” which was subs. for “State Government” by A.O. 1968 by A.O. 1973; the word “State” was subs. for the word “Provincial” by Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.
(2) Any person upon whom an order is served under sub-section (1) shall be bound, in the absence of reasonable excuse, to furnish correct information.

50. Procedure relating to searches, etc.—Save as in this Act otherwise expressly provided, the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1989, relating to arrests, detentions in custody, searches, summons, warrants of arrest, search-warrants, production of persons arrested and investigation of offence shall be held to be applicable to all action taken in respect of any offence under this Act:

Provided that—

(i) Any offence under this Act may be investigated by an officer empowered under section 46 without the order of a magistrate;

(ii) Whenever an excise officer below the rank of Collector makes any arrest, seizure or search he shall within twenty-four hours thereafter make a full report of all the particulars of the arrest, seizure or search to his immediate official superior, and shall, unless bail be accepted under section 73, take or send the person arrested on the article seized, with all convenient dispatch to a Judicial Magistrate for trial or adjudication.

51. Police to aid excise officers—All police officers are required to aid the excise officers in the due execution of this Act, upon request made by such excise officers.

52. Duty of landholders and others to give information.—(a) Every owner or occupant of land [or any building] and the agent of any owner or occupant of land or any building on which—

(i) Every embankment, village headman, village accountant, village washman, village police man and every officer employed in the collection of revenue or rent of land on the part of Government or the Court of Wards in whose village there shall be any manufacture or illegal import or collection of any opium or any salt or any building on which—

(b) Every bhangadai, village headman, village accountant, village washman, village police man and every officer employed in the collection of revenue or rent of land on the part of Government or the Court of Wards in whose village there shall be any manufacture or illegal import or collection of any opium or any salt or any building on which—

53. Duty of officer in charge of police Station to take charge of article seized.—Every officer in charge of a police station shall take charge of and keep in safe custody, pending the order of a magistrate or of the Collector or of an officer empowered under sub-section 46(1) to investigate the case, all articles seized under this Act which may be delivered to him, and shall allow any excise officer who may accompany such articles to the police station or, may be deported for the purpose by his superior officer to affix his seal to the articles and to take samples of it from them. All samples so taken shall also be sealed with the seal of the officer in charge of the police station.
54. Power to close shops for the sake of public peace.—(1) The District Magistrate or a Sub-Divisional Magistrate by notice in writing to the licensee may require that any shop in which any intoxicant is sold shall be closed at such times or for such period as he may think necessary for the preservation of the public peace.

(2) If a riot or unlawful assembly is apprehended or occurs in the vicinity of any such shop, [any Executive Magistrate] of any class may require such shop to be kept closed for such period as he may think necessary:

Provided that where any such riot or unlawful assembly occurs the licensee shall, in the absence of a magistrate, close his shop without any order.

(3) When any Sub-divisional Magistrate makes a direction under subsection (1) or [any Executive Magistrate] makes a direction under subsection (2), he shall forthwith inform the Collector of his action and his reasons thereof.

CHAPTER VIII

64. Penalty for fraud by licensed manufacturer or vendor or his servant.—If any licensed manufacturer or licensed vendor or any person in his employ or acting on his behalf:

(a) sells, or keeps or exposes for sale, as foreign liquor any liquor which he knows or has reason to believe to have been manufactured from rectified spirit or country liquor; or

(b) marks any bottle, case, package or other receptacle containing liquor so manufactured from rectified spirit or country liquor, or the cork of any such bottle, or deals with any bottle, case, package or other receptacle containing such liquor with the intention of causing it to be believed that such bottle, case, package, or other receptacle contains foreign liquor;

he shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months, 4[and with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees].

2. Subs. by Punjab Act 35 of 1956, sec. 3, for the words "or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees or with both".
3. Section 63-A ins. by Punjab Act No. 31 of 1963, sec. 3.
4. Subs. for the words "or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees or with both" by Punjab Act 35 of 1956, sec. 4.
65. Penalty for certain acts by licensee or his servants.—Whoever, being the holder of a licence, permit or pass granted under this Act, or being in the employ of such holder or acting on his behalf:—

(a) fails wilfully to produce such licence, permit or pass on the demand of any excise officer or of any other officer duly empowered to make such demand; or

(b) in any case not provided for in section 61 wilfully contravenes any rule made under section 58 or section 59; or

(c) wilfully does or omits to do anything in breach of any of the conditions of the licence, permit or pass not otherwise provided for in this Act;

shall be punishable in case (a) with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees and in case (b) or case (c) with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees.

66. Penalty for consumption in chemist's shop, etc.—(1) If any chemist, druggist, apothecary or keeper of a dispensary allows any intoxicant which has not been bonafide medicated for medicinal purposes to be consumed on his business premises by any person not employed in his business, he shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months \^[and with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees].

(2) If any person not employed as aforesaid consumes any such intoxicant on such premises, he shall be punishable with a fine which may extend to two hundred rupees.

67. Manufacture, sale or possession by one person on account of another.—(1) When any intoxicant has been manufactured or sold or is possessed by any person on account of any other person and such other person knows or has reason to believe that such manufacture or sale was, or that such possession is on his account, the article shall for the purposes of this Act be deemed to have been manufactured or sold by or to be in the possession of such other person.

(2) Nothing in sub-section (1) shall absolve any person who manufactures, sells or has possession of an intoxicant on account of another person from liability to any punishment under this Act, for the unlawful manufacture, sale or possession of such article.

1. Subs. for the words “or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees or with both” by Punjab Act, 35 of 1956, sec. 5.

2. Subs. for the words “excisable article” by Government of India (Adaptation of Indian Laws) Order, 1937.
68. Penalty for offences not otherwise provided for.—Whoever is guilty of any act or intentional omission in contravention of any of the provisions of this Act, or of any rule, notification or order made, issued or given thereunder, and not otherwise provided for in this Act, shall be punishable for every such act or omission with a fine which may extend to two hundred rupees.

68-A. Enhanced punishment for certain offences after previous conviction.—Whoever, having been convicted of an offence punishable under subsection (1) of section 61 of this Act, is again convicted of an offence punishable under the said subsection shall,—

(a) for a second offence be punished with not less than twice the punishment awarded to him on his first conviction; and

(b) for a third or subsequent offence be punished with not less than twice the punishment awarded to him on his second conviction or immediate last conviction:

Provided that the enhanced punishment does not exceed the imprisonment of three years and a fine of two thousand rupees;

Provided further that if on a previous conviction the sentence awarded was that of fine only, a sentence of imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years shall also be awarded as subsequent conviction and such sentence of imprisonment shall be in addition to the enhanced penalty of fine;

Provided further that the enhanced punishment would not in any way affect the minimum sentence prescribed, for the offence of possession of a working still for the manufacture of any intoxicant.

69. Attempt to commit offences punishable under the Act.—Whoever attempts to commit or abets any offence punishable under this Act shall be liable to the punishment provided for the offence.

69-A. Security for abstaining from commission of certain offences.—(1) Whenever any person is convicted of an offence punishable under sections 61, 63, or 69 and the Court convicting him is of the opinion that it is necessary to require such person to execute a bond for abstaining from the commission of offences punishable under those sections, the Court may at the time of passing sentence on such person, order him to execute a bond for a sum proportionate to his means, with or without sureties, for abstaining from the commission of such offences during such period, not exceeding three years, as it thinks fit to fix.

1. Section 68-A as inserted by sec. 6 of Punjab Act 35 of 1956, w.e.f. by sec. 2 of Punjab Act 22 of 1963.

2. Added by East Punjab Act, IX of 1948, sec. 7.
(2) The bond shall be in the form contained in Schedule II and the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, shall, in so far as they are applicable, apply to all matters connected with such bond as if it were a bond to keep the peace ordered to be executed under section 106 of the said Code.

(3) If the conviction is set aside on appeal or in revision, the bond so executed shall become void.

(4) An order under this section may also be made by an appellate court, or by the High Court, when exercising its powers of revision.

70. Penalty for excise officer making vexatious search, etc.—If an excise officer—

(a) vexatiously and unnecessarily enters or searches, or causes to be entered or searched, any place under colour of exercising any power conferred by this Act; or

(b) vexatiously and unnecessarily seizes the movable property of any person on the pretence of seizing or searching for any article liable to confiscation under this Act; or

(c) vexatiously and unnecessarily searches, arrests or detains any person; or

(d) without lawful excuse ceases or refuses to perform or withdraws himself from the duties of his office unless expressly allowed to do so in writing by the Collector or unless he shall have given to his immediate superior officer two months’ notice in writing of his intention to do so; he shall be liable to imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months, or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both.

71. Report by investigating officer for institution of proceedings.—If on an investigation by an excise officer empowered under section 46, sub-section(1) it appears that there is sufficient evidence to justify the prosecution of the accused the investigating officer, unless he submits the case for the orders of the Collector under section 80, shall submit a report, (which shall for the purposes of section 190 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, be deemed to be a police report) to a magistrate having jurisdiction to inquire into or try the case and empowered to take cognizance of offences on police reports.

72. Offences to be bailable.—All offences, punishable under this Act shall be bailable within the meaning of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898.

Provided that the offence of possession of a working still for the manufacture of any intoxicant under section 61 (1) shall be non-bailable.]

73. Security for appearance in case of arrest without warrant.—(1) The [State Government] may empower any excise officer to grant bail, notwithstanding that such officer is not empowered under section 46.

(2) When a person is arrested under this Act, otherwise than on warrant, by a person or officer who is not empowered to grant bail, he shall be produced before or forwarded to—

(a) the nearest excise officer empowered to grant bail, or

(b) the nearest officer in charge of a police station, whoever is nearer.

(3) Whenever any person arrested under this Act, otherwise than on a warrant, is prepared to give bail, and is arrested by, or produced in accordance with sub-section (2) before an officer empowered to grant bail, he shall be released upon bail, or at the discretion of the officer releasing him on his own bond.

(4) The provisions of sections 499 to 502, 513, 514 and 515 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, shall apply so far as may be in every case in which bail is accepted or a bond taken under this section.

74. Repealed.

75. Cognizance of offences.—(1) No Judicial magistrate shall take cognizance of an offence punishable—

(a) under section 61 or section 66 except on his own knowledge or suspicion or on the complaint or report of an excise officer, or

(b) under section 62, section 63, section 64, section 65, section 68 or section 70, except on the complaint or report of the Collector or an excise officer authorised by him in that behalf.

(2) Except with the special sanction of the State Government no Judicial magistrate shall take cognizance of any offence punishable under this Act, unless the prosecution is instituted within a year after the date on which the offence is alleged to have been committed.

76. Presumption as to commission of offence in certain cases.—Whenever any person is found in possession of—

1. The proviso added by Punjab Act, 35 of 1956, sec. 7.

2. Subs. for "Central Government" (which was subs. for "State Government" by A.O. 1968) by A.O. 1973. The word "State" was subs. for "Provincial" by Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.

4. Section 74, relating to "enhanced punishment after previous conviction", repealed by Punjab Act II of 1925, sec. 3.

5. Subs. for the word "Magistrate" by Punjab Act No. 25 of 1964.
(a) any still, utensil, implement or apparatus whatsoever or any part or parts thereof, such as are ordinarily used for the manufacture of any intoxicant other than tari;

(b) any materials which have under gone any process towards the manufacture of an intoxicant or from which an intoxicant has been manufactured; it shall be presumed, until the contrary is proved, that his possession was in contravention of the provisions of this Act.

176-A. Presumption as to commission of offence in prosecutions under section 63.—In prosecutions under section 63, it shall be presumed without further evidence, until the contrary is proved, that the accused person has committed an offence under that section in respect of any denatured spirit which has been or attempted to be rendered fit for human consumption.

77. Liability of employer for offence committed by employee or agent.—The holder of a licence, permit or pass under this Act as well as the actual offender shall be liable to punishment, for any offence punishable under section 61, section 62, section 63, section 64 or section 65, committed by any person in his employ or acting on his behalf as if he had himself committed the same, unless he shall establish that all due and reasonable precautions were exercised by him to prevent the commission of such offence;

Provided that no person other than the actual offender shall be punished with imprisonment except in default of payment of fine.

78. Confiscation of article in respect of which offence committed.—(1) Whenever an offence punishable under this Act has been committed;

(a) every intoxicant or excise bottle in respect of which such offence has been committed, together with the contents of such bottle, if any;

(b) every still, utensil, implement or apparatus and all materials in respect of or by means of which such offence has been committed;

(c) every intoxicant or excise bottle lawfully imported, transported, manufactured had in possession or sold along with, or in addition to, any intoxicant or excise bottle liable to confiscation under clause (a);

(d) every receptacle, package and covering in which any intoxicant or excise bottle materials, still, utensil, implement or apparatus as aforesaid is or are found together with the other contents (if any) of such receptacle or package; and

1. Subs. for the words "excisable article" by Government of India (Adaptation of Indian Laws) Order, 1937.

3. Ins. by Punjab Act I of 1940, sec. 4.
(e) every animal, cart, vessel, raft or other conveyance used in carrying such receptacle, package, covering or articles as aforesaid; shall be liable to confiscation:

Provided that when it is proved that the receptacles, animals, or other articles specified in clauses (d) and (e) are not the property of offender they shall not be liable to confiscation if the owner thereof establishes that he had no reason to believe that such offence was being or was likely to be committed.

(2) When confiscation may be ordered.—When in the trial of any offence punishable under this Act the magistrate decides that anything is liable to confiscation under sub-section (1) he may order confiscation:

Provided that in lieu of ordering confiscation he may give the owner of the thing liable to be confiscated an option to pay such fine as the magistrate thinks fit.

79. Further provisions for confiscation.—When there is reason to believe that an offence under this Act has been committed, but the offender is not known or cannot be found and when anything or animal liable to confiscation under this Act, and not in the possession of any person cannot be satisfactorily accounted for, the case shall be inquired into and determined by the Collector who may order confiscation:

Provided that no such order shall be made until the expiration of one month from the date of seizing the thing or animal in question or without hearing the person (if any) claiming any right thereto, and the evidence (if any) which he produces in support of the claim:

Provided further, that if the thing in question is liable to speedy and natural decay, or if the Collector is of opinion that the sale of the thing or animal in question would be for the benefit of its owner, the Collector may at any time direct it to be sold; and the provisions of this section shall, so far as may be, apply to the net proceeds of such sale.

80. Power of excise officers to compound offences.—(1) The Collector may accept from any person who is reasonably suspected of having committed an offence punishable under section 62, section 65 or section 68 of this Act a sum of money by way of composition for such offence; and on the payment of such sum of money to the Collector, the accused person if in custody shall be discharged and no further proceedings shall be taken against him in respect of such offence.

(2) The cancellation or suspension of any license, permit or pass under section 36(a), (b) or (c) of this Act may be foregone or revoked by and at the sole discretion of the authority having power to cancel or suspend it on payment by the holder of such license, permit or pass of such penalty as such authority may fix.

(3) Where any intoxicating liquor has been seized under the provisions of this Act, the Collector may, in his discretion, at any time before a Magistrate has passed an order under section 78, sub-section (2) release it on receiving payment of the value thereof.
